

DICK GREGORY

COMEDIAN MAKES STOOGES OF CIA

Dick Gregory Raps Agency In College Park Talk

By JOHN M. PURNELL
(Sun Staff Correspondent)

College Park, Md., Aug. 14—Dick Gregory, the comedian who says he is a 1968 Presidential candidate, told a group of about 400 students at the National Student Congress tonight that their group was "infiltrated" by the Central Intelligence Agency because "you're thinking."

He said that the CIA is "scared" of the growing number of Americans who are 26 and under "who are searching for the truth."

Mr. Gregory, whose appearance was sponsored by the Students for a Democratic Society—some members of which want to dissolve the National Student Association—admitted that many people were "upset that the student groups and the CIA were romancing each other."

"Takes A Dumb Cat..."

Mr. Gregory also said he was glad to see that the young people attending his talk "won't sit back and watch the CIA overthrow governments all across the world." He added:
"And don't think it won't happen here."

Mr. Gregory was brought to the campus by student radicals who hope to draw support to a plan that would dissolve the N.S.A. because of its financial ties to the CIA.

He said that it "takes a dumb cat to want to be a spy" and criticized the CIA because it "keeps getting caught—by us."

The students, meeting on the University of Maryland campus here, greeted Mr. Gregory's remarks with enthusiasm and laughed loudly at his jokes, which were highly critical of the N.S.A.'s involvement with the CIA.

"Sorry You Got The Rap"

Mr. Gregory said he did not know why the CIA had to use the student organization because it can "buy all the secrets it wants.... I'm sorry you got the rap."
